

WHEREAS, credit unions such as GECU, El Paso Area Teachers Federal Credit Union, El Paso Employees Federal Credit Union, FirstLight Federal Credit Union, Golden Key Federal Credit Union, Mountain Star Federal Credit Union, One Source Federal Credit Union, and Tip O' Texas Federal Credit Union are not for profit financial institutions owned and founded by their members who work together toward economic advancement; and

WHEREAS, credit unions strongly support financial education in their communities and it is a goal that every person have affordable financial services through credit unions; and

WHEREAS, credit unions have demonstrated outstanding leadership in their communities for the past 150 years in 97 nations around the world with more than 54,000 credit unions serving the financial needs of 186 million people, including 540,111 local El Paso credit union members; and

WHEREAS, community members can recognize the many contributions credit unions have made in El Paso and other surrounding communities as well as positive impacts credit unions have made across the world through developing alliances to make financial democracy possible.

Now therefore, be it resolved by the County Judge and Commissioners that the week of Sunday October 17^h 2010 through Saturday, October 23, 2010 be recognized as Credit Union Week in the County of El Paso,

Signed this 18th day of October, 2010.

Commissioner Anna Perez, Pct. 1

Commissioner Veronica Escobar, Pct. 2

Commissioner Willie Gandara, Jr, Pct. 3

Commissioner Daniel R. Haggerty, Pct. 4

*Anthony Cobos
County Judge*