El Paso County Hosts Free Community Cleanup Event

El Paso County Public Works seeks to provide residents of El Paso County with an event to safely dispose of household waste.

EL PASO, TX — El Paso County Public Works is hosting two FREE community clean up events on Saturday, April 13 from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. (or until capacity). This event is part of a series of community cleanups the department will be hosting from April to August. The cleanup event allows El Paso County residents to dispose of unwanted items, while making a difference in their community.

The drop off locations are:

- Westway: 1002 Tiffany Rd., Canutillo, Texas 79835
- Fabens: 199 Citizen Transfer Station Rd., Fabens, Texas 79838

Passenger tires, bulk trash, and electronic waste will be accepted as follows:

- Tires
 - Each resident may bring up to 5 tires. There will be a maximum collection of 1,500 tires for the event.
 - Accepted tires must measure 17 inches or smaller.
 - Tires from retailers, semi-trucks, equipment-trucks, or those with rims will NOT be accepted.
- Bulk Trash and Electronic Waste
 - Residents may bring one pick-up truck load of bulk trash, including furniture, chairs, carpet, etc.
 - Accepted electronics include computers, tablets, scanners, video games, cameras, radios, cellphones, VCRs, and DVD players.
 - CRT monitors and televisions will NOT be accepted.

This event is FREE and open to the residents of El Paso County. Some items may not be accepted, so residents are encouraged to sort their bulk waste prior to arrival. For any questions, please contact the El Paso County Public Works Office at (915) 546-2015.
